1 Corinthians 12:12-27

(NASB)

¹²For even as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, so also is Christ. ¹³For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. ¹⁴For the body is not one member, but many.

¹⁵If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

(NASB)

¹⁶And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body," it is not for this reason any the less a part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?

¹⁸But now God has placed the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He desired. ¹⁹If they were all one member, where would the body be? ²⁰But now there are many members, but one body.

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

(NASB)

²¹And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

²²On the contrary, it is much truer that the members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary; ²³and those members of the body which we deem less honorable, on these we bestow more abundant honor, and our less presentable members become much more presentable, ²⁴whereas our more presentable members have no need of it.

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

(NASB)

But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honor to that member which lacked, ²⁵that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.

²⁶And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. ²⁷Now you are Christ's body, and individually members of it.
