SERVANT SONGS

Isaiah 42:1-2 NIV

“Here is my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen one in whom I delight;
I will put my Spirit on him,
and he will bring justice to the nations.
² He will not shout or cry out,
or raise his voice in the streets.”

SERVANT SONGS

Isaiah 42:3-4 NIV

³ “A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out. In faithfulness he will bring forth justice; ⁴ he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice on earth. In his teaching the islands will put their hope.”

SERVANT SONGS

“Jesus Christ, this Servant, is attracted to hopeless cases. He loves the fragile. He loves people who are beaten and who are battered and who are bruised and maybe don't show it on the outside, but inside, they're dying. He knows what to do with them. Over and over and over again, the Bible says (like Psalm 147 or Isaiah 61) he binds up the brokenhearted, and he heals their wounds.” -Tim Keller

SERVANT SONGS

“The webbing together of God, humans, and all creation in justice, fulfillment, and delight is what the Old Testament prophets called shalom. We call it peace, but it means far more than mere peace of mind or cease-fire among enemies. In the Bible shalom means universal flourishing, wholeness, and delight—a rich state of affairs that inspires joyful wonder as its Creator and Savior opens doors and welcomes

SERVANT SONGS

Isaiah 1:18 ESV

“Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.”
