Ezekiel 16:1-6 (ESV)

Again the word of the LORD came to me: ² “Son of man, make known to Jerusalem her abominations, ³ and say, Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth are of the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. ⁴ And as for your birth, on the day you were born your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to cleanse you, nor rubbed with salt, nor wrapped in swaddling cloths. ⁵ No eye pitied you, to do any of

Ezekiel 16:7-14 (ESV)

“I made you flourish like a plant of the field. And you grew up and became tall and arrived at full adornment. Your breasts were formed, and your hair had grown; yet you were naked and bare. When I passed by you again and saw you, behold, you were at the age for love, and I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your nakedness; I made my vow to you and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Lord God, and you became mine. ⁹ Then I bathed

“Is there anything which keeps our heart from perfectly loving Christ? Let us have done with it at once. Have you got into any habit that keeps you from living near to Jesus? Is there any favorite sin which mars your communion with him? Have you any little practice which, in itself, may be excusable, but which, in its tendency, may be injurious? Give it all up. He who is poor for Christ’s sake is richer than the richest of men, and he who gives up a pleasure for the sake of Christ has more enjoyment in so doing than he would ever have had in the pleasure itself.” -C.H. Spurgeon
