GALATIA

ACTS 13:4-14:28

● City

Galatians 1:6-9 (ESV)

I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—
7 not that there is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.

Galatians 1:6-9 (ESV)

⁸ But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹ As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you received, let him be accursed.

The background is a dark, almost black, space filled with intricate, faint, white, wispy patterns that resemble smoke or ethereal light trails. Two bright orange curved lines, resembling orbital paths or arcs, frame the central text. One arc is at the top, and the other is at the bottom, both curving from the left towards the right.

Wonder

Word

“...the church’s greatest troublemakers (now as then) are not those outside who oppose, ridicule and persecute it, but those inside who try to change the gospel. It is they who trouble the church.”

– John Stott

Romans 11:6 (ESV)

But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

“For the one doctrine which I have supremely at heart is that of faith in Christ, from whom, through whom and unto whom all my theological thinking flows back and forth day and night.”

-Martin Luther

The image features a dark, textured background with a marbled or fibrous appearance. Two bright orange curved lines, resembling arcs of a circle, are positioned at the top and bottom of the frame. Centered in the middle is the word "Warning" in a bold, white, sans-serif font.
