

TREASURING THE

Grace

OF CHRIST

The background is a dark, almost black, surface with a complex, organic, marbled pattern in shades of grey and white. This pattern resembles a microscopic view of tissue or a dense network of fibers. Overlaid on this are several thin, glowing orange lines that curve across the frame, creating a sense of depth and movement. The word "Cursed" is centered in a clean, white, sans-serif font.

Cursed

People are justified
by faith alone.

Galatians 3:10-12 (ESV)

For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, “Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them.” ¹¹ Now it is evident that no one is justified before God by the law, for “The righteous shall live by faith.”

Galatians 3:10-12 (ESV)

¹² But the law is not of faith, rather “The one who does them shall live by them.”

The Path of Works

James 2:10 (ESV)

For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it.

“The righteous shall live by faith.”

Galatians 3:13-14 (ESV)

Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree”—¹⁴ so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.

The Path of Grace

The background is a dark, almost black, field with intricate, faint, white, wispy patterns that resemble smoke or ethereal light trails. Two bright orange curved lines, resembling orbital paths or arcs, frame the central text from the top-left and bottom-right corners.

The curse of the law is removed only by the cross of Christ.
